

Special Sale of Umbrellas, 60c Each

On Saturday we will put on sale 75 Umbrellas at 60c each. We call especial attention to these Umbrellas, as they are the best procurable at these prices. They are an especially good Umbrella for children's use. These Umbrellas have a steel rod and frame, fast black English Gloria, assorted handles, trimmed with German silver, in fact, an Umbrella worth 75c. For a special on Saturday we shall ask only 60c each.

PERRY & CAMP,

Telephone 9-4. 71 and 75 Main Street, Barre, Vt.

A Yard of Flowers For 59 Cents.

This is exactly what we are offering today, and showing in our windows. If you do not say that they are the prettiest sight you have seen on exhibition in Barre for many months, then we will lose our guess.

Your Choice at 59 cents.

B. W. Hooker & Co.,

CITY UNDERTAKERS.
Improved Ambulance Service, Barre, Vermont.

FALL HATS!

The bell has rung and all Straw Hats have been called in. Harvest yours, Sir! Fall Hats are ready. We've all the new blocks in Soft and Stiff Hats. This is as much a hat store as if we sold nothing but Hats. Not exclusive better prices, though, by any means. Stiff Hats in all the new and correct fall shapes. $2.00, 2.50, 3.00 to 4.00. Soft Hats in the season's best styles. They're beauties. $2.00, 2.50, 3.00 to 4.00. Hats, Caps and all sorts of Fall Headgear for Boys, Misses and Children. Every Hat we sell is guaranteed to do its duty.

MOORE & OWENS,

122 North Main St., Barre, Vt.

REMEMBER

That we have plenty of fine Ice Cream at the Granite City Creamery. We shall close evenings at six o'clock, commencing Thursday, September 3, '08, except Monday and Saturday.

L. B. Dodge,

WORTHEN BLOCK, KEITH AVENUE.

EVERY SATURDAY

FINE CHOCOLATES FOR
39 CENTS A POUND

We handle Fuller-Greene choice Chocolates in bulk. They regularly sell for 50c a pound. We sell them for 50c throughout the week and cannot deviate from that price, but on Saturday we make a special bargain price for that day of 39c. This is too good an offer to overlook.

C. H. KENDRICK & CO.,

54 North Main Street. DRUGGISTS.

HEADQUARTERS FORSCHOOL SUPPLIES

We are all equipped with our usual stock of good values in School Supplies, including Tablets, Composition Books, Pencils, Crayons, Erasers, Pencil Sharpeners, Rulers, Inks, etc., etc.

Inks we carry in sizes from 3-ounce to 1-quart bottles at right prices. We carry Paul's Safety Bottle Inks and Carter's Inks in 4 ounce, pint and quart bottles.

Buy your supplies of us and get the benefit of the rebate check, which is certainly worth considering.

C. N. KENYON & CO.'S

CASH BARGAIN STORE.

185-187 North Main Street. (Telephone 123-12) Barre, Vermont.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Public bath at Hotel Otis, 25 cents.

Sale of ladies' sweaters at Vaughan's.

Violin lessons 50c, Marsters, 20 Averill street.

School hose for boys and girls at Vaughan's.

Miss Ruth L. Conner has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. E. C. Gould of Palmer, Mass.

Mrs. H. O. Werthen and son, Ray, returned last night from a several weeks' stay at Old Orchard Beach, Me.

Mrs. W. N. Davis and daughter, Frances, who have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mayor and Mrs. John Robins, returned today to their home in White River Junction.

Political statisticians and those interested in the recent local election will find the official figures of the election, as given out by City Clerk Mackay, published on the sixth page of this issue.

The members of the local Metropolitan Insurance company's staff, O. D. Riggs, C. M. Rollins, Charles Gay and G. L. Linkin, went to Burlington last night and today will go to Bluff Point, N. Y., to attend a meeting of agents of that company.

Deputy Sheriff H. J. Slayton went to Rutland today to get Mrs. Joanna Galtimbert, as her bondsman wishes to surrender her to the city court on a charge against her. The woman will be brought to the city court and formal surrender of her bail be made.

The Montpelier Argus has the following good word to say of Barre's next representative: "George N. Tilden, elected in Barre on Tuesday as member of the house of representatives, is a man of ability and experience, progressive in his ideas and the possessor of good, hard common sense. He will be heard from in the legislature during the coming session."

For sale! Quite a quantity of nice hay. Must be sold in two weeks. Inquire of Paul Kingston, Richardson road, city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Parkhurst and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colvin went to Plattsburg, N. Y., today for a week's visit with relatives.

Monday, September 7, being Labor Day, the Granite City Creamery will be closed from noon to 6 p. m., and will be open from 6 to 7 p. m.

Monday, September 7, being Labor Day, the Granite City Creamery will be closed from noon to 6 p. m., and will be open from 6 to 7 p. m.

Remember the date of the Ladies of Clan Gordon fair, October 8, 9, and 10. A good program and music for dancing will be furnished each evening.

Contributions to the Aldrich memorial tablet received and not previously acknowledged are: Fred Waters $1, A. S. Martin $1, E. H. Gilden $1, Cash $1.

Miss Nanchen Adams, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ban for the past two weeks, left this morning for her home in Bridgeport, Conn.

There will be a scrub golf match at the Barre Golf club's links next Monday morning, and as many of the players as possible are asked to be on the links to participate.

The Young Women's Tourist club will meet with Mrs. Sargent Monday afternoon at three o'clock. The members are requested to be present, as there is important business to transact.

Harold and Herman More, sons of C. H. More of Chicago, the head of the C. H. More granite company, left last night for their home, after spending several weeks in this city and Montpelier.

The members of the Ladies of the Maccabees, with their husbands and gentlemen friends, will hold a corn roast at D. C. Roben's farm, East Hill, Tuesday evening, September 8th. Members meet at Gospel Village schoolhouse at 6:15.

The Labor day committee have made arrangements for a special train to be run from East Barre and other stations on Labor day as follows: Train will leave East Barre at 9:40, Bontwell's 9:55, Westerville 10:05. The returning train will leave Barre at seven o'clock.

The golden opportunity of the street musician is rapidly passing for this season, and Barre is getting fully its share of the strolling dispensers of alleged music. The latest addition in the shape of a sturdy-gurdy with family accompaniment held forth on the streets last evening.

Mittens and ear-muffs will be in keeping with the next weekly band concert if the weather conditions are any more severe than last night. But in spite of the chill in the atmosphere last night, a large crowd of people stood around the city park and listened to the concert by the Montpelier Military band, and got so enthusiastic as to encore two numbers of the program.

A brilliant display of the "northern lights" was plainly visible last evening from eight to nine o'clock, and it attracted a great deal of attention. The appearance of the display was similar to the daytime sky when the sun is said to be drawing water from the earth; at times it would dull out and disappear and then return with great distinctness.

A base ball team of thirteen players, eight from this city and the rest from Montpelier, Richmond and Bethel, went to Woodstock this morning, where they will play the Woodstock team this afternoon and two games on Monday at the Labor Day celebration. The players that will be used in the three games will be Stewart, Olsen, Smith, Knapp, Harry and Charles Wisart, Dombrowsky and Reid of this city, Haggie, Towle and Pierce of Montpelier, Jerome Berry of Richmond and Emery of Bethel. Olsen and Stewart will be the battery for Barre in this afternoon's game.

W. L. Taylor and son, James Gallagher, Alex. and George McIntosh went to Highgate yesterday to remain over Sunday.

For sale! Quite a quantity of nice hay. Must be sold in two weeks. Inquire of Paul Kingston, Richardson road, city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Parkhurst and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colvin went to Plattsburg, N. Y., today for a week's visit with relatives.

Monday, September 7, being Labor Day, the Granite City Creamery will be closed from noon to 6 p. m., and will be open from 6 to 7 p. m.

Monday, September 7, being Labor Day, the Granite City Creamery will be closed from noon to 6 p. m., and will be open from 6 to 7 p. m.

Remember the date of the Ladies of Clan Gordon fair, October 8, 9, and 10. A good program and music for dancing will be furnished each evening.

Contributions to the Aldrich memorial tablet received and not previously acknowledged are: Fred Waters $1, A. S. Martin $1, E. H. Gilden $1, Cash $1.

Miss Nanchen Adams, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ban for the past two weeks, left this morning for her home in Bridgeport, Conn.

There will be a scrub golf match at the Barre Golf club's links next Monday morning, and as many of the players as possible are asked to be on the links to participate.

The Young Women's Tourist club will meet with Mrs. Sargent Monday afternoon at three o'clock. The members are requested to be present, as there is important business to transact.

Harold and Herman More, sons of C. H. More of Chicago, the head of the C. H. More granite company, left last night for their home, after spending several weeks in this city and Montpelier.

The members of the Ladies of the Maccabees, with their husbands and gentlemen friends, will hold a corn roast at D. C. Roben's farm, East Hill, Tuesday evening, September 8th. Members meet at Gospel Village schoolhouse at 6:15.

The Labor day committee have made arrangements for a special train to be run from East Barre and other stations on Labor day as follows: Train will leave East Barre at 9:40, Bontwell's 9:55, Westerville 10:05. The returning train will leave Barre at seven o'clock.

The golden opportunity of the street musician is rapidly passing for this season, and Barre is getting fully its share of the strolling dispensers of alleged music. The latest addition in the shape of a sturdy-gurdy with family accompaniment held forth on the streets last evening.

Mittens and ear-muffs will be in keeping with the next weekly band concert if the weather conditions are any more severe than last night. But in spite of the chill in the atmosphere last night, a large crowd of people stood around the city park and listened to the concert by the Montpelier Military band, and got so enthusiastic as to encore two numbers of the program.

A brilliant display of the "northern lights" was plainly visible last evening from eight to nine o'clock, and it attracted a great deal of attention. The appearance of the display was similar to the daytime sky when the sun is said to be drawing water from the earth; at times it would dull out and disappear and then return with great distinctness.

A base ball team of thirteen players, eight from this city and the rest from Montpelier, Richmond and Bethel, went to Woodstock this morning, where they will play the Woodstock team this afternoon and two games on Monday at the Labor Day celebration. The players that will be used in the three games will be Stewart, Olsen, Smith, Knapp, Harry and Charles Wisart, Dombrowsky and Reid of this city, Haggie, Towle and Pierce of Montpelier, Jerome Berry of Richmond and Emery of Bethel. Olsen and Stewart will be the battery for Barre in this afternoon's game.

W. L. Taylor and son, James Gallagher, Alex. and George McIntosh went to Highgate yesterday to remain over Sunday.

For sale! Quite a quantity of nice hay. Must be sold in two weeks. Inquire of Paul Kingston, Richardson road, city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Parkhurst and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colvin went to Plattsburg, N. Y., today for a week's visit with relatives.

Monday, September 7, being Labor Day, the Granite City Creamery will be closed from noon to 6 p. m., and will be open from 6 to 7 p. m.

Monday, September 7, being Labor Day, the Granite City Creamery will be closed from noon to 6 p. m., and will be open from 6 to 7 p. m.

Remember the date of the Ladies of Clan Gordon fair, October 8, 9, and 10. A good program and music for dancing will be furnished each evening.

Contributions to the Aldrich memorial tablet received and not previously acknowledged are: Fred Waters $1, A. S. Martin $1, E. H. Gilden $1, Cash $1.

Miss Nanchen Adams, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ban for the past two weeks, left this morning for her home in Bridgeport, Conn.

There will be a scrub golf match at the Barre Golf club's links next Monday morning, and as many of the players as possible are asked to be on the links to participate.

The Young Women's Tourist club will meet with Mrs. Sargent Monday afternoon at three o'clock. The members are requested to be present, as there is important business to transact.

Harold and Herman More, sons of C. H. More of Chicago, the head of the C. H. More granite company, left last night for their home, after spending several weeks in this city and Montpelier.

The members of the Ladies of the Maccabees, with their husbands and gentlemen friends, will hold a corn roast at D. C. Roben's farm, East Hill, Tuesday evening, September 8th. Members meet at Gospel Village schoolhouse at 6:15.

The Labor day committee have made arrangements for a special train to be run from East Barre and other stations on Labor day as follows: Train will leave East Barre at 9:40, Bontwell's 9:55, Westerville 10:05. The returning train will leave Barre at seven o'clock.

The golden opportunity of the street musician is rapidly passing for this season, and Barre is getting fully its share of the strolling dispensers of alleged music. The latest addition in the shape of a sturdy-gurdy with family accompaniment held forth on the streets last evening.

Mittens and ear-muffs will be in keeping with the next weekly band concert if the weather conditions are any more severe than last night. But in spite of the chill in the atmosphere last night, a large crowd of people stood around the city park and listened to the concert by the Montpelier Military band, and got so enthusiastic as to encore two numbers of the program.

A brilliant display of the "northern lights" was plainly visible last evening from eight to nine o'clock, and it attracted a great deal of attention. The appearance of the display was similar to the daytime sky when the sun is said to be drawing water from the earth; at times it would dull out and disappear and then return with great distinctness.

A base ball team of thirteen players, eight from this city and the rest from Montpelier, Richmond and Bethel, went to Woodstock this morning, where they will play the Woodstock team this afternoon and two games on Monday at the Labor Day celebration. The players that will be used in the three games will be Stewart, Olsen, Smith, Knapp, Harry and Charles Wisart, Dombrowsky and Reid of this city, Haggie, Towle and Pierce of Montpelier, Jerome Berry of Richmond and Emery of Bethel. Olsen and Stewart will be the battery for Barre in this afternoon's game.

W. L. Taylor and son, James Gallagher, Alex. and George McIntosh went to Highgate yesterday to remain over Sunday.

For sale! Quite a quantity of nice hay. Must be sold in two weeks. Inquire of Paul Kingston, Richardson road, city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Parkhurst and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colvin went to Plattsburg, N. Y., today for a week's visit with relatives.

Monday, September 7, being Labor Day, the Granite City Creamery will be closed from noon to 6 p. m., and will be open from 6 to 7 p. m.

Monday, September 7, being Labor Day, the Granite City Creamery will be closed from noon to 6 p. m., and will be open from 6 to 7 p. m.

Remember the date of the Ladies of Clan Gordon fair, October 8, 9, and 10. A good program and music for dancing will be furnished each evening.

Contributions to the Aldrich memorial tablet received and not previously acknowledged are: Fred Waters $1, A. S. Martin $1, E. H. Gilden $1, Cash $1.

Miss Nanchen Adams, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ban for the past two weeks, left this morning for her home in Bridgeport, Conn.

There will be a scrub golf match at the Barre Golf club's links next Monday morning, and as many of the players as possible are asked to be on the links to participate.

The Young Women's Tourist club will meet with Mrs. Sargent Monday afternoon at three o'clock. The members are requested to be present, as there is important business to transact.

Harold and Herman More, sons of C. H. More of Chicago, the head of the C. H. More granite company, left last night for their home, after spending several weeks in this city and Montpelier.

The members of the Ladies of the Maccabees, with their husbands and gentlemen friends, will hold a corn roast at D. C. Roben's farm, East Hill, Tuesday evening, September 8th. Members meet at Gospel Village schoolhouse at 6:15.

The Labor day committee have made arrangements for a special train to be run from East Barre and other stations on Labor day as follows: Train will leave East Barre at 9:40, Bontwell's 9:55, Westerville 10:05. The returning train will leave Barre at seven o'clock.

The golden opportunity of the street musician is rapidly passing for this season, and Barre is getting fully its share of the strolling dispensers of alleged music. The latest addition in the shape of a sturdy-gurdy with family accompaniment held forth on the streets last evening.

Mittens and ear-muffs will be in keeping with the next weekly band concert if the weather conditions are any more severe than last night. But in spite of the chill in the atmosphere last night, a large crowd of people stood around the city park and listened to the concert by the Montpelier Military band, and got so enthusiastic as to encore two numbers of the program.

A brilliant display of the "northern lights" was plainly visible last evening from eight to nine o'clock, and it attracted a great deal of attention. The appearance of the display was similar to the daytime sky when the sun is said to be drawing water from the earth; at times it would dull out and disappear and then return with great distinctness.

A base ball team of thirteen players, eight from this city and the rest from Montpelier, Richmond and Bethel, went to Woodstock this morning, where they will play the Woodstock team this afternoon and two games on Monday at the Labor Day celebration. The players that will be used in the three games will be Stewart, Olsen, Smith, Knapp, Harry and Charles Wisart, Dombrowsky and Reid of this city, Haggie, Towle and Pierce of Montpelier, Jerome Berry of Richmond and Emery of Bethel. Olsen and Stewart will be the battery for Barre in this afternoon's game.

W. L. Taylor and son, James Gallagher, Alex. and George McIntosh went to Highgate yesterday to remain over Sunday.

For sale! Quite a quantity of nice hay. Must be sold in two weeks. Inquire of Paul Kingston, Richardson road, city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Parkhurst and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colvin went to Plattsburg, N. Y., today for a week's visit with relatives.

Monday, September 7, being Labor Day, the Granite City Creamery will be closed from noon to 6 p. m., and will be open from 6 to 7 p. m.

Monday, September 7, being Labor Day, the Granite City Creamery will be closed from noon to 6 p. m., and will be open from 6 to 7 p. m.

Remember the date of the Ladies of Clan Gordon fair, October 8, 9, and 10. A good program and music for dancing will be furnished each evening.

Contributions to the Aldrich memorial tablet received and not previously acknowledged are: Fred Waters $1, A. S. Martin $1, E. H. Gilden $1, Cash $1.

Miss Nanchen Adams, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ban for the past two weeks, left this morning for her home in Bridgeport, Conn.

There will be a scrub golf match at the Barre Golf club's links next Monday morning, and as many of the players as possible are asked to be on the links to participate.

The Young Women's Tourist club will meet with Mrs. Sargent Monday afternoon at three o'clock. The members are requested to be present, as there is important business to transact.

Harold and Herman More, sons of C. H. More of Chicago, the head of the C. H. More granite company, left last night for their home, after spending several weeks in this city and Montpelier.

The members of the Ladies of the Maccabees, with their husbands and gentlemen friends, will hold a corn roast at D. C. Roben's farm, East Hill, Tuesday evening, September 8th. Members meet at Gospel Village schoolhouse at 6:15.

The Labor day committee have made arrangements for a special train to be run from East Barre and other stations on Labor day as follows: Train will leave East Barre at 9:40, Bontwell's 9:55, Westerville 10:05. The returning train will leave Barre at seven o'clock.

The golden opportunity of the street musician is rapidly passing for this season, and Barre is getting fully its share of the strolling dispensers of alleged music. The latest addition in the shape of a sturdy-gurdy with family accompaniment held forth on the streets last evening.

Mittens and ear-muffs will be in keeping with the next weekly band concert if the weather conditions are any more severe than last night. But in spite of the chill in the atmosphere last night, a large crowd of people stood around the city park and listened to the concert by the Montpelier Military band, and got so enthusiastic as to encore two numbers of the program.

A brilliant display of the "northern lights" was plainly visible last evening from eight to nine o'clock, and it attracted a great deal of attention. The appearance of the display was similar to the daytime sky when the sun is said to be drawing water from the earth; at times it would dull out and disappear and then return with great distinctness.

A base ball team of thirteen players, eight from this city and the rest from Montpelier, Richmond and Bethel, went to Woodstock this morning, where they will play the Woodstock team this afternoon and two games on Monday at the Labor Day celebration. The players that will be used in the three games will be Stewart, Olsen, Smith, Knapp, Harry and Charles Wisart, Dombrowsky and Reid of this city, Haggie, Towle and Pierce of Montpelier, Jerome Berry of Richmond and Emery of Bethel. Olsen and Stewart will be the battery for Barre in this afternoon's game.

W. L. Taylor and son, James Gallagher, Alex. and George McIntosh went to Highgate yesterday to remain over Sunday.

For sale! Quite a quantity of nice hay. Must be sold in two weeks. Inquire of Paul Kingston, Richardson road, city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Parkhurst and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colvin went to Plattsburg, N. Y., today for a week's visit with relatives.

Monday, September 7, being Labor Day, the Granite City Creamery will be closed from noon to 6 p. m., and will be open from 6 to 7 p. m.

Monday, September 7, being Labor Day, the Granite City Creamery will be closed from noon to 6 p. m., and will be open from 6 to 7 p. m.

Remember the date of the Ladies of Clan Gordon fair, October 8, 9, and 10. A good program and music for dancing will be furnished each evening.

Contributions to the Aldrich memorial tablet received and not previously acknowledged are: Fred Waters $1, A. S. Martin $1, E. H. Gilden $1, Cash $1.

Miss Nanchen Adams, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ban for the past two weeks, left this morning for her home in Bridgeport, Conn.

There will be a scrub golf match at the Barre Golf club's links next Monday morning, and as many of the players as possible are asked to be on the links to participate.

The Young Women's Tourist club will meet with Mrs. Sargent Monday afternoon at three o'clock. The members are requested to be present, as there is important business to transact.

Harold and Herman More, sons of C. H. More of Chicago, the head of the C. H. More granite company, left last night for their home, after spending several weeks in this city and Montpelier.

The members of the Ladies of the Maccabees, with their husbands and gentlemen friends, will hold a corn roast at D. C. Roben's farm, East Hill, Tuesday evening, September 8th. Members meet at Gospel Village schoolhouse at 6:15.

The Labor day committee have made arrangements for a special train to be run from East Barre and other stations on Labor day as follows: Train will leave East Barre at 9:40, Bontwell's 9:55, Westerville 10:05. The returning train will leave Barre at seven o'clock.

The golden opportunity of the street musician is rapidly passing for this season, and Barre is getting fully its share of the strolling dispensers of alleged music. The latest addition in the shape of a sturdy-gurdy with family accompaniment held forth on the streets last evening.

Mittens and ear-muffs will be in keeping with the next weekly band concert if the weather conditions are any more severe than last night. But in spite of the chill in the atmosphere last night, a large crowd of people stood around the city park and listened to the concert by the Montpelier Military band, and got so enthusiastic as to encore two numbers of the program.

A brilliant display of the "northern lights" was plainly visible last evening from eight to nine o'clock, and it attracted a great deal of attention. The appearance of the display was similar to the daytime sky when the sun is said to be drawing water from the earth; at times it would dull out and disappear and then return with great distinctness.

A base ball team of thirteen players, eight from this city and the rest from Montpelier, Richmond and Bethel, went to Woodstock this morning, where they will play the Woodstock team this afternoon and two games on Monday at the Labor Day celebration. The players that will be used in the three games will be Stewart, Olsen, Smith, Knapp, Harry and Charles Wisart, Dombrowsky and Reid of this city, Haggie, Towle and Pierce of Montpelier, Jerome Berry of Richmond and Emery of Bethel. Olsen and Stewart will be the battery for Barre in this afternoon's game.

W. L. Taylor and son, James Gallagher, Alex. and George McIntosh went to Highgate yesterday to remain over Sunday.

For sale! Quite a quantity of nice hay. Must be sold in two weeks. Inquire of Paul Kingston, Richardson road, city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Parkhurst and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colvin went to Plattsburg, N. Y., today for a week's visit with relatives.

Monday, September 7, being Labor Day, the Granite City Creamery will be closed from noon to 6 p. m., and will be open from 6 to 7 p. m.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

New pictures at the Theatorium.

Try Lander's Havana leaf de cigar.

Ladies' new fall coats at Vaughan's.

Wanted; table boarders at 4 Harrington avenue.

A. Scampini was in Williamstown on business yesterday.

Special sale of umbrellas, 60c each, at Perry's on Saturday.

Fred Barton left yesterday for a business visit in Enosburg Falls.

Frank Proulx went to Montreal today for a few days' vacation.

Mrs. Frank Proulx leaves to-night for Concord, N. H., to visit relatives.

Sadlier & Dawson sell as they buy, cash or credit. See ad. page 8.